Thomas Wells, Jr. will made on January 5, 1718 and probated September 26, 1718 in Maryland, states he was of "Anne Arundal and Prince George Counties". One record show that in 1703 a grant of 180 acres was patented to him in Prince George Co., Maryland. In his will he names nine children and Frances, his wife. To her, "Mother of my children", he bequeathed their dwelling plantation "Strife" and an adjoining tract called "Something" to hold during her life and at her decease to go to their four sons, Thomas, Robert, Nathan, and Joseph Wells. Should all of her sons die without issue the lands were to descend to their daughters, Frances, Mary, Sarah and Elizabeth and their heirs. To wife Frances and heirs he bequeathed a house and lot in Queen Ann's town (Annapolis) and the residue of the estate. To his daughters and their heirs he bequeathed other "personality" and to his son George five shillings. His sons Thomas and Nathan signed his inventory as next of kin. Notes for THOMAS WELLS:
Pension application Archives File No. R. 11318.

Thomas served out of Ft. Jackson as an orderly sergeant. He was in Capt. Jesse Pigman's Comp. He was remembered of helping to establish Ft. McIntosh at the mouth of the Big Beaver on the Ohio River in 1788.

He also served in the War of 1812 and substituted for Joseph McCoy in March to Norfolk when the News of peace arrived. (Tyler Co. History Book)

Was living in Pa. on Tenmile Creek when he enlisted at Fort Jackson on April 1, 1776 and served in Jesse Pigman's Company of Indian Spies under Colonel McFarland who was commanding Fort Jackson at the time. During his service he served as an orderly Sergeant in Captain Jesse Pigman's Company. His tours of duty included travelling to other forts, spying and defending, in Spring, Summer and Fall until October when they would return to Fort Jackson. He and his companions packed their own provisions on their backs and frequently suffered from hunger and fatigue.

Thomas was about 83 years old when he applied for his pension and a great injustice was done when it was not granted, I am sure. He was discharged on December 1m 1777 (Ref. National Archives, R-11, 318, pp 48-51)

Fort Wells...Brooke County (W)VA
Fort Wells was a small stockade fort erected in the spring of 1773 by Richard Wells. It stood on the dividing ridge between the waters of Cross Creek and Harmon's Creek, in Brooke County. Its commandant was a Quaker, and in consequence of his kindness to the Indians, they never molested him or his people. It was unfortunate for our forefathers as well as for the Indians that the former were not all Quakers.

NEIL Archer (JOSEPH\textsuperscript{5}, ELIZABETH\textsuperscript{5} Wells, JOHN DUCKETT\textsuperscript{4}, NATHANIEL\textsuperscript{3}, THOMAS\textsuperscript{2}, THOMAS\textsuperscript{1}) was born 09 Jul 1818 in Tyler Co., WVA., and died 23 Dec 1862 in Cumberland, Maryland. Notes for NEIL ARCHER:
Served in the Union Army as a Sergeant in Comp. E, of the 14th Regiment, WVa. Infantry. His body was returned to his family in Tyler Co. and at his wife's insistance was laid to rest in the Archer's Chapel Cemetery near the Archer farm, rather than the old cemetery that is in a field on the present Joe Archer farm a few hundred yards away. The reason for this we are told was because other members of the Archer Family were Southern sympathizers, Especially William Archer, Neil's brother. This caused much bitterness in the family. His burial was the first in the Archer Chapel's graveyard and his gravestone bears this inscription: "Farewell, O husband and Father, Dear, Farewell. Thou hast left us lonely in this world of pain. Oh may we meet in Heavenly bliss to dwell at God's right hand, no more to part again." Close by the cemetery is a beautiful little white church known as the United Methodist Church which Neil helped to build just before he left to join the Union Forces.

I visited the Archer farm and both cemeteries in 1965 and found the graves of Neil and Margaret

John paid for his land with timber cut from it in Winter and made into rafts which were floated down Sugar Creek when the Spring floods came to Middle Island Creek; then down the Ohio River to Marietta, Ohio.

During the Civil War, we have been told, John had some excitement when it was learned that Morgan's Raiders were planning to invade West Va., by crossing the Ohio River into Wheeling. Grandfather John got together about one hundred of his Militiamen and they went to Wheeling to meet the Rebels. They found the river very high, the Rebels had no boats to cross it, so they had to stay in Ohio.

Notes for MICHELE C. THOMAS:
Mrs. Michal C. Ankrom

Mrs. Michal C. Ankrom, wife of Jonathan Ankrom, departed this life June 25th. Her death though much expected for some time, was a great shock to friends and relatives. Her death was due to organic heart trouble, and although the physicians, Messrs. E.B. Conaway and M.L. Fittro, of Alma, did all that medical aid could, and had repeatedly told the members of the family that death might be expected any time; they could only build on hopes of her recovery, but she might revive and be spared them. But the end was drawing near and on the morning of the 24th of June she began to show signs of sinking rapidly and by noon the friends were summoned to her bedside to witness her last hours. She gradually sank until midnight, 12:05, when the end came. Mrs. Michal C. Ankrom was born in this county; was 66 years of age, born August 5, 1835. She was of noble family, daughter of Jacob and Sarah Thomas, both formerly of this county. Her father, Jacob Thomas living to see his 91st year and mother, Sarah Thomas, her 81st year. She leaves one sister, husband, four sons and three daughters to mourn their loss. She was married to Johnathan Ankrom July 10th, 1855. Since then were born to them Solomon Ankrom of St. Marys; M.R. Ankrom of Alma; Susan Ferrell of Lone Tree; Lib Walters of Blue; Flora Roberts of Iuka; Lemar Ankrom, and Boody Ankrom. Surviving her only is one sister, Susan W. Doak of Vancamp, WV. The life of the deceased was an exemplary one in many particulars. She was a member of the M.E. church, as well as coming of a strictly religious family. Her father before was a devout member of the church, joining while only a youth of 14, and perhaps her greatest traits of character was her promptness and strict honesty, integrity and uprightness, through this manner of life. The deceased had acquired a great host of friends. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Adams, pastor of the M.E. church of Alma. Interment at the Baptist church cemetery at 10:00 a.m. Wednesday, June 26th. (Now is Beechwood Cemetery)

Notes for Homer Busse Jemison:

Homer Jemison

Homer Jemison died Monday in Cleveland Clinic: A feeling of deep sadness was experienced by the citizens of Middlebourne Monday night when a telephone message was received here that Homer Bussy Jemison had passed away at 7:30 o'clock in the Clinic hospital in Cleveland, Ohio, where he had submitted to a operation about two weeks previous. He was reported to be much improved following the operation and it was thought here that he was on the road to recovery, and the first information of his sudden turn for the worse received here was when his family was notified of his serious condition by his physician and they were asked to hurry to his bedside. His wife and children left here at once that they might be with him. Mr. Jemison was a son of the late Newton and Mary Crumrine Jemison, long time residents of this part of Tyler County. His entire life had been spent in Middlebourne, and he enjoyed a wide circle of friends here and in Tyler County. For a number of years he has been a member of the firm of the Home Store Co., and one of the obliging clerks of the firm. By his courteous treatment of the firm's customers, he had continued to maintain old friends and add new ones. He was aged at the time of his death, 59 years, three months and 17 days. He was married to Miss Jessie Ankrom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M.R. Ankrom, of Alma, and to this union three children were born. Carl, Clarice and Billy who with their mother survive. He is also survived by the following sisters and brothers: Mrs. Asa D. Shore, Mrs. Charles E. Riggle, Ernie W., and Clyde Jemison of Middlebourne, and Lawrence Jemison of Charleston, WV; a sister Lydia Jemison passed away in early childhood. The deceased was an active member of the Middlebourne Methodist Episcopal Church having sustained a relationship with the church since early manhood. He will be sadly missed in the home, church circles, among his business associates and as a citizen of the community. He had a host of friends who will be shocked at his sudden passing. Funeral services were held today Thursday, at 2 o'clock p.m. at the home here in Middlebourne, in charge of Rev. G.J. Johnson of the local Methodist church. Following the services burial was made in Greenwood cemetery near Middlebourne in charge of T.J. Sellers local funeral director. 1932

Notes for WILLIAM HARVEY WELLS:
William Wells was the oldest child. He was Betty Sprouse's favorite uncle. He was always good to all kids. He wrote to Betty when she was in the service, even though he worked for the railroad and farmed. He was a man with a great sense of humor. He had been married three times. Two of his wives died from snake bites and the third wife died from consumption or T.B. After that he believed that he was not meant to have a wife. He had diabetes in his later years and that was the cause of his death.
Harvey Wells was in WWI with the rainbow division. He spent much of his life growing tobacco, Crowder pea's, peanuts, and raising hogs. He was always a very serious man. Minnie had one child before her marriage to Harvey. Minnie was an Indian woman who was tall and thin who worked like a horse. She always had her hair pulled back and was a good cook. She wore a white apron that was starched so stiff that dirt could not stick to it. She was 90 years old and still spaded up a big garden. She passed away after a flood when she fell and broke a hip. Which she never fully recovered from. Harvey passed away from diabetic complications.

Notes for JOHN WELLS:
John Wells lived in Logan Co., WV, where he worked in the deep mines. Betty Sprouse never knew his wife.
John would hitch-hike from Logan County to East Liverpool, Ohio to visit with Betty's family. John was a sweet old man that was bent over because of working in the mines. His son Alex was a gifted person, who could shoot better with a sling shot than most people could shoot a gun with a scope.

   ii. JEWELL.
   iii. JOHN.
   iv. ALEC.

295. DELLA MAY WELLS (JAMES HENRY, CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS, HENRY, WILLIAM, RICHARD DUCKETT, JOHN DUCKETT, NATHANIEL, THOMAS, THOMAS) was born 06 May 1888 in Tyler Co., WV., and died 27 Feb 1949 in St. Josephs Hospital, Parkersburg, Wood Co., WV.
She married SAMUEL MARTIN FLETCHER. He was born 18 Dec 1898, and died Oct 1981 in Fayetteville, Fayette Co., WV.

Notes for DELLA MAY WELLS:
Della Wells Fletcher lived around Greenwood and West Union, WV. She was a very good cook. She had a great sense of humor and a very fun loving person. She was a very large person who likes to go to the fairs and ride the rides. The kids liked to watch her ride the rides because they thought that the rides would break. Both she and Martin were diabetics they did not use the needles and through it away. They would sterilize and reuse the needle.
Betty thought this was a big deal. Martin was a very wealthy man from buying up homes during the depression when people would sell out to survive. Martin was an ornery man always enjoying playing games on the teenagers.

Notes for Dorian A. Wells:
According to information received by Fred Wells of Chester, WVa., Dora Wells' given name was Dorian A. Wells. Dorian apparently worked for Wheeling Steel Corp. and owned a bar near the stockyard in Moundsville, WVa. According the information, Minnie Gregg Wells got mixed up with a guy in the bar in plot to kill Dorian for his insurance money. Well Dorian was at a 'cock fight' at the Fair in Jacktown, Pa. when he was beatin to death by a bunch of guys. One of which was the man that Minnie took up with.

During the trial witnesses identified Minnie as being with these men and the new man of Minnie's was found guilty and spent only two years in jail for the killing of Dorian. Then after being released from jail, Minnie and this other man were married. Apparently 6 years later, Minnie house exploded.

Mg Cert dtd 5 Feb 1927 Signed by Boise Stake President Heber Q. Hale. Temple Record in SL Temple dtd 19 Sep 1932 Signs by George F. Richards, witnessed by William T Jacks and Jos S Groesbeck. A testimony found in Clarence's Family History Book written and signed by him self. "I was fortunate enough to be born a member of the LDS Church so have been a member all my life and can say that I know of a surety that the gospel is true and is the only way to true happiness. I have had several spiritual experiences, one was in a dream. I dreamed that the Savior appeared and I held his hand and we walked up one aisle and down the other in the Third Ward building. As long as I held his hand and it was a marvelous hand beyond anything I have ever experienced, I pondered about my sins that I had committed during my life and it seemed they were gone. I have often wondered why I should have such an unusual and glorious experience and I know that it was for the purpose of letting me know as long as I believed in the Savior and stayed close as possible to him that my sins would be blotted out."

Clarence received many awards and certificates of recognition. He was a member of the Sons of the Utah Pioneers,1961. He received a Certificate of Award from the Office of Price Administration for service in the war effort, dated 1 Aug 1944. A Certificate of Jury Service 9 Jun 1977. He was a Staff Sergeant in the Idaho State Guard, recd 12 Feb 1943. He completed several Priesthood Genealogy courses and served 2 yrs in the Name Extraction Program.
According to Clarence in his own handwriting he weighed 12 lbs. at birth with brown hair, grey eyes and light complexion. He was lightly freckled. He was bapt. in Pine Grove Ward, Union, Elgin 12 May 1911. Was made a Deacon 18 Jul 1916, a Teacher 8 Jan 1918 in Weiser Ward, Boise Stake by Wm. E. Yancey, a Priest 22 Jan 1923 by Chas Grant, an Elder 22 Apr 1928 in Weiser Ward, Boise Stake by Arthur M. Sanford, a Seventy by John Longden in Weiser Ward, Boise Stake 8 Jan 1956, a High Priest 23 Feb 1969 by Evern O. Youngberg.
